

For 2022-2023 ACHA games, the following referee systems are approved

Men's Division 1:

- 1-Referee, 2-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 2-Linesman

(Note: The 2-Referee, 2-Linesman system is the recommended ACHA system)

Men's Division 2:

- 1-Referee, 2-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 1-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 2-Linesman

(Note: The 2-Referee, 2-Linesman system is the recommended ACHA system)

Men's Division 3:

- 1-Referee, 2-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 1-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 2-Linesman

(Note: The 2-Referee, 2-Linesman system is the recommended ACHA system)

Woman's Division 1:

- 2-Referee
- 1-Referee, 2-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 1-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 2-Linesman

Woman's Division 2:

- 2-Referee
- 1-Referee, 2-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 1-Linesman
- 2-Referee, 2-Linesman

Unable to Continue:

Should the appointed official(s) be unable to continue, the remaining systems shall be used:

- In the 2R, 2L system, if an official is unable to continue, an approved divisional system shall be used.
- In the 2R, 1L system, if an official is unable to continue, a 1R, 1L system shall be used.
- In the 1R, 2L system, if an official is unable to continue, a 1R, 1L system shall be used.
- In any ACHA game, no game may be played with one official.

Games in this category will be suspended. Contact your appropriate ACHA Divisional Commissioner and the ACHA Referee-in-Chief to report this situation. Use the incident report form on the ACHA website located under the officials tab.
www.achahockey.com

Thank you
Ed Giacomucci
ACHA Referee-in-Chief referee@achahockey.org